To Whom It May Concern:

In response to your request that all components in this product are listed on the DSL and are not listed on the SNac list our response follows:

This letter is to confirm that all components of ABS and PC products produced are listed on the Domestic Substance List (DSL) and none of the substances are subject to any "significant new activity" (SNac).

The information and certifications provided herein are based on data we believe to be reliable, to the best of our knowledge. The information and certifications apply only to the specific material designated herein as sold by STAR Plastics, Inc. and do not apply to use in any process or in combination with any other material. Accordingly, STAR Plastics cannot guarantee or warrant such certifications or information and assumes no liability for their use.
